

Are assured of big returns for time spent in the perusal of our advertisement columns. Only the advertisements of reputable firms offering dependable merchandise are accepted.

The Mahoning Dispatch.

ONCE A CUSTOMER

Of our Job Printing Department always one. Large or small orders are assured the same careful attention at prices compatible with the quality of the product. We solicit your valued orders.

VOL. XL. NO. 2.

CANFIELD, MAHONING COUNTY, OHIO, APRIL 14, 1916.

$1.00 A YEAR

WASHINGTONVILLE

Brief Items Which Chronicle the Doings of People in the Village Bordering Two Counties.

BY CLARENCE BAKER

James Paisley has been suffering with quinsy.

Lee Eyster and Lee Matzenbaugh were in Akron Tuesday.

Miss Alice Platt was a Leetonia caller Monday afternoon.

James Chappell spent a few days here this week with his wife.

Mont. Bailey rented the Frederick farm and is moving his family there.

The school board held its regular meeting at the schoolhouse Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Wm. King of Salem spent Friday with her parents, W. E. Roller and wife.

Ira Frederick of Alliance spent Saturday with his mother, Mrs. Lydia Frederick.

Mrs. John Hively of Greenford spent last Thursday night with Miss Lydia King.

King's Parlor for Spring and Summer Hats—from 48c to 95c and to $4.00.—Adv. 1-2.

Joe Fitzpatrick and Harry McNeal are building a new shop for their carpenter business.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Yoder are the proud parents of a fine baby girl born Monday morning.

Mrs. Alice Perry of Harrisonburg, Va., is here spending a week in with her sister, Mrs. Herbert Smalley.

Mrs. John Stewart and little daughter of Salem spent Friday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Weikert.

Wm. Wilkinson of Arcadia, Kan., was the week-end guest of his sisters, Mrs. Mary Wood and Miss Eliza Wilkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nease of Salem were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Coby Eyster, a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller were guests of their daughter, Mrs. E. S. Freed, and husband in Girard over Sunday.

James Paisley returned home last Thursday from Youngstown. Mr. Paisley is recovering from a surgical operation.

Mrs. Esther Stucker of East Palestine was operated on Monday in the Salem hospital. Mrs. Stucker formerly lived here.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Longbottom of Canton were the guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Longbottom, over Sunday.

Mrs. Baird was taken to the hospital in Youngstown Friday afternoon and was operated on in the evening. She is improving very slowly.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. John Carroll, in Franklin Square, a fine baby girl Monday. Mrs. Carroll was formerly Miss Helen Roller and lived here a few years ago.

Mrs. Wm. Dalrymple on Monday received word of the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. James Gallagher, in Youngstown, and went to see her Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Moscoe Grindle entertained the Women's Home Circle Wednesday night. The evening was very pleasant and spent doing fancy work. The hostess served an elegant lunch.

The school drama entitled "The Blossoming of Mary Anne" will be presented in the school auditorium Friday and Saturday nights. Attend everywhere and take your friends.

Mrs. Harry Kessler and Mrs. Seaborn of Sharon were called here to the bedside of their brother-in-law, John Williams, Monday evening. Mr. Williams has been seriously ill the last week.

Wednesday evening, April 19, there will be a spelling bee and a box or pie social at the No. 8 school house. Everyone is invited to go and be sure and take a pie or a box with good things in it.

They had clean up day in the school yard Monday with the assistance of David Weikart and his team and some of the older pupils. Let us all get busy and clean up our yards before the health officers come round and orders us to do it.

J. B. Schroy of Greenford discovered the dead body of John Clary, a section hand, on the Erie line last Thursday afternoon. Half mile north of the old Fairview coal mine. He notified the authorities at Greenford and had the body removed to the undertaking rooms of Elmer Hendricks.

The dead man had lived in a box car near Greenford for the past month and is believed to have been on his way from Washingtonville when stricken. A sister survives in Brooklyn, it is understood.

"The Blossoming of Mary Anne," a play in four acts, will be presented by the senior class of the Washingtonville high school in the Washingtonville auditorium April 14 and 15. Curtain drawn at 7:30 central standard. Following is the cast of characters:

William Barkley.....Loran Taylor
Charles Mason.....Clarence Baker
Lloyd Henderson.....Mark Klingensmith
Teddy Farnum.....Russell Smith
Mrs. Henry Kate Kirkland.....

Blanche Heintzelman
Mrs. John Simmons.....Marie Warner
Mary Anne Simmons.....Elva Senior
Betsy Scroggins.....Emma Culler
Sarah Applegate Stussy.....Olivia Fynes
Elaine Jewett.....Thelma Bossert
Frelia Jewett.....Abbie Smith
Fatty Cloverleaf.....Ella Dalrymple

William Reed, Sr., aged 77, died at his home here last Thursday morning about 9 o'clock. Mr. Reed seemed to be in his usual health until about an hour before his death. He had arisen and was dressing when he was stricken with heart trouble and died before medical aid reached his home. He was a miner by vocation and for the past 10 years had resided in Washingtonville. Mr. Reed had lived here a number of years once before and had also worked in the mines at Wampum, Pa. He is survived by four children, Mrs. T. R. Lewis, Charles and Walter Reed of this place and Wm. Reed, Jr., of Millville. Funeral services were held from the home of his daughter, Mrs. T. R. Lewis, Saturday afternoon with burial in Oakdale cemetery.

Mrs. Alf. Taylor was a Salem shopper Wednesday.

Mrs. Ensign Senheiser is confined to her bed with illness.

Mrs. Elwood Bertolette has been on the sick list the past week.

Mrs. J. D. Smith went to Marquis Wednesday to visit John Feicht and family.

Mrs. Harry McNeal and Miss Mercedes Gilbert were Salem visitors Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Johnson of Columbiana called on friends here Tuesday evening.

Harley Roller went to Franklin Square Wednesday morning to see his new niece, Miss Carol.

Mrs. Tom Grindle, Sr., returned Monday to her home east of town after several months illness at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Johnson.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church met at the home of Mrs. Wm. Culler last Tuesday evening.

Another meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Snider next Tuesday evening.

Welcome Lodge, No. 247, K. of P., will give away a model 83 Overland touring car on the evening of April 23. The exercises incident to it will be held on Harvey Baker's lawn if the weather is favorable, otherwise in K. of P. hall. Knights are expected from Greenford, Lisbon, Leetonia, Columbiana, Salem and East Palestine.

Probation Officer Snyder of Salem was in the village Friday and removed Mary Weaver, age 10, to the home of C. S. Bonnell in Salem. Her foster father, Walter Senier, of Franklin Square had placed her in the home of his mother, Mrs. Ann Senier, a week ago. Judge Farr had been notified that the child had been abused and mistreated by Senier's wife and he instructed the officer to remove the child to the home of C. S. Bonnell.

Mr. Senier is very much attached to the little girl whom he has had in his home for eight years and she is likewise attached to him. Senier asked the court to place Mary in charge of his sister, Mrs. Lizzie Middleton, of Leetonia. Judge Farr will investigate the Middleton home and if found the proper place will place her there. Meantime she will remain with Mrs. Bonnell in Salem.

ISLAND

April 12—Mrs. Geo. Grindle, who was sick several months at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Johnson, in Washingtonville, was removed to her home Tuesday.

H. E. Calvin and family of Clarksville spent Tuesday with H. H. Calvin and wife.

Mrs. Wenger and sister Lena, Harry Sel and Mr. Heckman spent Sunday with Jonas Knopp and family.

Noah Bixler is building a concrete foundation for Mrs. Lovina Horst's bungalow.

Mark Calvin visited Mark Klingensmith Tuesday evening.

Frank Boston is making extensive improvements by cleaning up the willow hollow on his farm.

Tanah and Stella Wenger spent Sunday with Ida Weaver.

Amos Martin and family and Mrs. Lovina Horst spent Sunday with Jacob Sel and family.

A. W. Detrow and family and Mrs. Fannie Lehman and Norman Lehman spent Sunday with D. R. Lehman and family.

Miss Ruby Yoder is doing housework for Mrs. Clarence Leshner.

Amos Wenger spent Sunday with his wife, Mrs. Rich, whom we are glad to note is improving after being ill for some weeks with pleural pneumonia.

David Lehman spent Sunday with Amos Detrow and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Good were Sunday guests in the home of H. H. Calvin and family.

Misses Lizzie and Fannie Rich will leave in a few days for Lancaster, Pa., and other points in the East to visit relatives.

S. G. McClun is preparing to go into the berry business quite extensively. He is suffering severe pains from rheumatism.

H. H. Calvin purchased a new buggy from H. L. Burns.

Eneas Witmer had business in Youngstown Monday.

Mrs. Barbara Knopp of Leetonia is spending a week with her son Alvin. Miss Dora Knopp concluded a week's visit in Youngstown and returned home Monday.

Miss Bertha Tescher was entertained Sunday by Edith and Anna Wenger.

Prof. J. C. Skages of Canfield visited our school Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Culp visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Brooks, Sunday.

Mrs. Fred Brudery is on the sick list.

Pupils perfect in attendance at Oak Dale school during the month ending April 7 were Mollie Lehman, Roland Rowe, Orland Rowe. Those absent one day or less were Bertha Tescher, Edith Wenger, Norman Lehman, Marie Weikart, teacher.

ELLSWORTH

April 12—Mrs. Frank Hull and daughter Neva were in Salem Friday. John Schafer and Arthur Baringer attended Odd Fellows lodge in Canfield last Wednesday evening.

Rev. C. C. Case was in Youngstown Tuesday.

Mrs. R. Shick is listed with the sick.

Grange met Tuesday night in the grange hall.

NORTH LIMA

April 12—Manitou Lodge, Knights of Pythias, will entertain the Columbiana lodge Friday evening, and the Columbiana team will confer the rank of knight upon three candidates. Four applications were read at the meeting last Friday evening, bringing the number of members up to 104, a gain of 24 in one year.

The next meeting of the grange will be held in the school house Wednesday evening, April 19, at 8 o'clock.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of Mt. Olivet Reformed church will be held with Mrs. Solomon Beard today. Next Sunday evening the society will hold an open meeting in the church, and all are cordially invited. A special program has been prepared.

L. W. Stratton has resigned as constable of Beaver township as he and his family will soon remove to Columbiana. His successor has not yet been appointed.

Marvin Callor of Pleasant Grove spent Sunday with Paul Mentzer.

Martin Keller is employed at the East Palestine rubber works.

Mrs. Abram Yoder and Mrs. Enos Yoder of East Palestine were Saturday guests at Eli Blosser's and John Yoder's.

On Palm Sunday, April 16, a class of children will be confirmed in the Lutheran church by the pastor. Services will begin at 3 o'clock P. M. Dining Holy Week services will be held Thursday evening and Friday evenings. Preparatory service Friday evening and communion on Sunday following.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Sell and daughter were Sunday visitors in Youngstown.

Mrs. G. L. Stackhouse of Canfield spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Obenau.

Myron Wirt and wife visited in Boardman Sunday.

Mrs. K. T. Sanders entertained the Lutheran Missionary Society for their regular monthly meeting.

R. E. Elser's school gave a very good entertainment of songs and readings at the school house Friday evening.

Mrs. H. L. Todd and Mrs. W. E. Glenn of Salem are spending a few days with local relatives.

Charles Flickinger and family of Columbiana were visitors at their father's home Sunday.

Miss Alice Parker of Columbus and Mrs. George Parker of Youngstown spent a day recently with Mrs. J. C. Longstreet.

Mrs. Howland Albright of Youngstown is the guest of Mrs. J. E. Dilworth.

Leonard Mentzer entertained a number of his young classmates at his pleasant country home last Thursday evening, on the occasion of his birthday anniversary.

MILLVILLE

April 12—John L. Zimmerman of Springfield spent a few days with his aged father, Abram Zimmerman, the past week.

George Crutchley was a Youngstown visitor Monday.

Eugene White of Salem, student at Mt. Union, spent a few days the past week at the home of E. T. Sulist and family.

Ralph Arner of Youngstown was with his parents here over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Needham have returned home to Canton after a visit of several days at the home of the latter's parents, W. E. Sheen and family.

D. E. Barnes and family of Adair have taken up their residence on the Warren Evans farm.

The school will hold a pie social and Easter entertainment Friday evening, April 21. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Zimmerman of Washingtonville were guests of friends in the village Sunday.

Dr. F. T. Miles of Salem made a professional call here Thursday.

Mrs. J. C. Smith of Riverside was a guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Sheen, Friday.

Mrs. C. K. Heintzelman, formerly of this village, but now of Goshen center, wishes to extend sincere thanks to the many friends in this community and Salem who so kindly remembered her birthday anniversary, April 6.

Several from this community attended the funeral of Mrs. R. A. Lamont, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Courtney, who died at the home of her parents on Saturday morning after an illness of several months of tuberculosis. The deceased was born July 28, 1887, and graduated from the Salem high school in the class of '06 after which she attended Wooster university. Surviving are her parents and one brother, Dr. Lynn Courtney. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. L. Swan of the Presbyterian church. Burial in Grandview cemetery.

EAST LEWISTOWN

April 12—Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Weikart of Greenford called on S. H. Mart in last Sunday.

Roy Guy of East Palestine is visiting his grandmothers, Mrs. Barbara Blosser.

Mrs. Henry Lehman and children of Island called on Mrs. H. L. Burns Monday afternoon.

Memo Brubaker and family called on his brother Aaron last Sunday.

Jacob Wilderson sold his driving horse to Paul Messerly.

Ell Painter is around again after being ill for a time.

Mrs. Henry Painter called on her people last Sunday.

Some folks started out in sleighs Sunday morning and had to return home in the mud.

Mrs. Nancy Blosser has been in Mineral Ridge to visit her sister who is not very well.

Mrs. Polly Burkholder, who is staying with her daughter, Mrs. I. N. Melinger, fell one day last week and sprained one of her arms. Mrs. Burkholder is nearly 80 years old.

BASEBALL SEASON OPENS

MAPLE GROVE

April 12—Mrs. Alice Vance returned home to Stoneboro, Pa., after spending a week with her mother, Mrs. Mary P. Calvin.

Mrs. C. Cool and daughter Mabel were in Greenford Monday.

Miss Nellie Calvin spent Friday with her cousin, Miss Thelma Culp.

Miss Rosanna Calvin is visiting Henry Calvin and family.

E. N. Beardsley has decided to buy an auto since he took a ride in the experiment station automobile.

Miss Ethel Frankford spent Saturday with Mrs. U. D. Calvin.

John M. Hendricks is working for John Weikart.

H. Crumbacher and M. E. Hendricks were in Youngstown Monday.

Alvin Snyder was in Greenford one night recently.

T. Coffman has rented Nathan Craft's farm.

Mr. and M. Roy Brooks called on the latter's grandmothers Sunday.

Charles Coffman called on the latter's school at the Boyer school house Friday night.

The roads are in a bad condition again since the snow that came Friday and Saturday melted.

April 12—Quite a number from this place attended spelling school at the Boyer schoolhouse Friday evening.

Marcus Detwiler was the winner in the contest and had free choice to select a package from the social tree.

Ethel Frankford called at U. D. Calvin's Saturday.

Thomas Coffman will move to the Nathan Craft property.

Monroe Hendricks, Earl Hendricks and Harvey Crumbaker went to Youngstown Monday on business.

Lizzie Detwiler is making her home with her son, Enos Detwiler, at present.

Ira Bradley called on his brother John in East Lewistown the other day.

Jennie Gustafson visited at E. Frankford's Sunday.

Thelma Culp called on Ethel Frankford Sunday.

Nellie Calvin spent Friday night in the home of Allen Culp and attended spelling school.

PATMOS

April 12—The teacher and pupils of our school have organized a bird club, which will be known hereafter as the "Patmos Junior Audubon Society, No. 3781 W. C." The aim of this society will be to protect and learn all they can about birds and wild animals. Eighteen members enrolled already and more will join. Please help the good cause along.

Sam Oesch and family moved to New Buffalo Wednesday. They will occupy a farm.

Clyde Beeler of Stringtown was a business caller here Wednesday.

Miss Ruby Weaver, who has been under a doctor's care for the past two or three weeks, is somewhat improved. She is suffering with a fractured knee.

Emmer Templin, formerly of this place, but now of Salem, is suffering from blood-poisoning in his toes. He has been very sick but is improving.

Quite a number from this vicinity went to Salem Wednesday, taking advantage of dollar day.

School Report—The following pupils were perfect in attendance for the month ending April 7: Melburn Waltham, Kathryn Oesch, Frank Ware, Mildred Riley, Myron Kegg, Gladys Dean and Thelma Owens. Those absent one day or less were Edith Baird, Charles Ware, Russell Waltham, Charlotte Kegg and Thelma Ware. Total enrollment, 39. James H. Dustman, teacher.

April 12—Mrs. Ben Fenaniche, who was for Mr. Renkenberger, spent several days last week with her daughter in Boardman.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Rupert called on the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hixon, Sunday afternoon.

Walter Huxsaw and Samuel Rupert called on Jonas Kohler Sunday afternoon.

Fred Heschelmann and family of Canfield spent Sunday with Lewis Greasel and family.

One of Mr. Greasel's horses has pinkies.

Jonas Kohler was in Canfield Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Rupert were in Youngstown Wednesday.

Miss Thelma Heckel of Canfield spent Thursday night with Bertha Kohler.

Misses Lena and Gertrude Greasel visited their sister, Mrs. Fred Heschelmann, Thursday.

Joe Greasel was sick several days last week.

WEST AUSTINTOWN

April 12—Frederick Haecke died at his home in Youngstown last Sunday morning. The deceased lived for a number of years about a mile southeast of this place, where he and the family were highly respected.

A number from here attended the funeral which was held at the Central Christian church in the city Thursday afternoon.

The remains of Mrs. Susan Crum, who died at her home on the town line road north of Perkins Sunday afternoon, were interred in the Union cemetery Tuesday afternoon. She was 82 years of age.

Mrs. Laura Steiner of the city was a Monday dinner guest in the home of G. W. Ryder.

Mrs. Morgan Williams spent Monday with Hubard friends.

Guy Cluper of the city was a Sunday afternoon caller.

C. W. Ryder, Mark Vehr and wife attended the funeral of Joseph Savage of the city Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. M. K. Boyle and two children of the city were Tuesday callers.

Mrs. William Jones of the city spent last Thursday in the home of Morgan Williams.

G. W. Ryder attended a council supper at Central Christian church Tuesday evening.

The remains of Samuel Budnitzky of the city were laid to rest Sunday afternoon in the Children of Israel cemetery south of the village.

William Ryder and wife attended the funeral of the latter's sister, Mrs. Susan Crum, near Perkins, Tuesday afternoon.

CORNBURG

April 12—Thomas Wanamaker and wife, G. W. Ryder and wife, Mrs. Thelma Patterson, Mark Wehr and Howard Corli attended the Bailey sale in North Jackson Wednesday.

John and Harry Smith have each purchased a new Chevrolet automobile.

Lemuel Little and wife of the city spent Wednesday in the home of his brother, Levi Little.

Miss R. T. Osborne spent Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Almina Twiss of the city.

John Smith has recovered from an attack of quinsy.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schooley of Alliance were visitors in the home of Thomas Wanamaker last Wednesday evening.

Mrs. G. W. Ryder had the misfortune to fall and severely injure her left arm one day last week.

Mrs. J. H. Lewis spent one day this week in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edgar Turner, of Lowellville.

G. W. Millikin and wife of the city were Monday afternoon callers.

Mr. and Mrs. Cowden of near Buffalo are staying in the home of Mr. Preston on the south side.

Quite a number from the south side attended a literary entertainment in Fosterville Friday night.

An entertainment will be given by The Mahoning Avenue Glee Club in Tippecanoe school Saturday night.

Donald Corli has purchased a motorcycle.

Mrs. Austin Crum has recovered from a slight illness.

Mrs. G. W. Ryder and Mrs. Levi Little attended a meeting of the C. W. B. M. at the Central Christian church in the city Thursday afternoon.

The remains of Mrs. Susan Crum, who died at her home on the town line road north of Perkins Sunday afternoon, were interred in the Union cemetery Tuesday afternoon. She was 82 years of age.

Mrs. Laura Steiner of the city was a Monday dinner guest in the home of G. W. Ryder.

Mrs. Morgan Williams spent Monday with Hubard friends.